Moscow, August 28.

THE Empress proposes to return to Petersbourg towards the Beginning of next Year. The late Duke of Courland's Daughter, Mademoiselle de Biron, who has been here about six Weeks, has embraced the Greek Religion, and has been baptized with great Solemnity by Order of her Imperial Majesty, who has appointed her an Apartment in the Palace, and made her one of the Ladies of her Bed-chamber.

Lisbon, Sept. 1. A Decree has lately been published here, by which the Presidentships of all the Tribunals which had remain'd vacant some 30, and others above 40 Years, have been of a sudden fill'd up by Noblemen of the first Rank and Merit in the Kingdom.

Naples, Sept. 2. The Court having received certain Information that the Algerine Rovers continue greatly to interrupt the Trade and Navigation of Sicily, have given Orders for all the Gallies in this Port immediately to put to Sea again.

Petersbourg, Sept. 2. 'Tis thought the Fleet will put no more to Sea this Year; as several Frigates are already come from Revel to Cronstadt, where they talk of laying them up; in the mean time, all the foreign Merchant Ships in these Parts are preparing to return to their respective Countries before the setting in of the frosty Weather.

Ratibor, Sept. 6. The Locusts have done a great deal of Mischief in the neighbourhood of this Place, particularly in the Lordship of Rubnig, where they have entirely devoured a great Quantity of Barley, Oats, and Millet; and our Accounts from Silesia are full of the great Havock they have made in several Parts of that Country.

Augsbourg, Sept. 9. The Duke and Dutchess of Bavaria arrived here Yesterday from Manheim, and having spent a few Hours in Dining, and viewing the Cathedral, set out in the Afternoon for Munich.

Venice, Sept. 12. Several Alterations have happened amongst the foreign Ministers here. The Marquis Scoti, Ambassador from Spain, has been recalled, and is replaced by the Duke of Montalegre, formerly Minister to the King of Naples. M. Montaign, the French Ambassador, is also recalled, and set out Yesterday upon his Return home, and M. Chavigni is talk'd of to succeed him. The Disputes which have so long subsisted between the Republick and the Religious of Malta being adjusted, that Order has sent one of their Knights to manage their Affairs, who has the Title of Ricevitor, which Character the Republick treat with particular Honours above those shewn to the Residents of crowned Heads, by admitting him to be seated and cover'd at his Audience, and to have the College Doors open. Sir James Gray, his Britannick Majesty's Resident to this Republick, arrived here on the 9th Instant.

Vienna, Sept. 13, N. S. The Empress Queen of Hungary set out the 10th Instant for the Camp at Salenau, where she was met by the Emperor from Hollitsch, and in the Evening her Imperial Majesty returned to this City. Count Caunitz, who is appointed Ambassador Extraordinary from this Court to that of France, has received the melancholly News from Moravia of the Death of his Lady in Child-bed, at Parlitz in that Kingdom. The Marquess Durazzo, Envoy Extraordinary from the Republick of Genoa to this Court, arrived here a few Days ago, and will soon be admitted to an Audience of her Imperial Majesty. General Count Brown is also arrived here from the Camp at Pilsen, and will set out in a few Days to take Possession of his Government of Transilvania. A large Quantity of Copper has lately been coined into Money and sent to Trieste and Fiume, which Places 'tis reported will soon be declared free Ports. The Court seems to apply itself with great Attention to the promoting of the Manufactures of the Hereditary Countries.

Prague,

(Price Two-pence.)

Prague, Sept. 13. Advices from divers Places in this Kingdom, and particularly from Budweis and Pilſen, all agree in the great Damages they have received from prodigious Swarms of Locuſts which are continually moving from one Place to another. Prince Lobkowitz is arrived here from Pilſen, where he has been for ſome Days to ſee the Troops encamped there perform a new Exerciſe.

Copenhagen, Sept. 13. N.S. Their Daniſh Majeſties are at preſent at this Place, but propoſe to go back on Tueſday next to Friedensburg for about three Weeks, and then to return hither.

The Court removes again this Afternoon to Friedensburg.

Dreſden, Sept. 15. The States of this Electorate ſeparated Yeſterday, having finiſhed their Deliberations entirely to the King's good Pleaſure, who promiſes himſelf the ſame Satisfaction in the ending of the Diet.

Ratisbonne, Sept. 18. Count Bentinck arrived here from the Hague on the 14th, and having been viſited by moſt of the Foreign Miniſters, continued his Journey on the 16th for Vienna.

S.* Prince Frederick of Heſſe Caſſel, accompanied by General Donep, and the Barons d'Aſſebourg and Furſtenberg, arrived here the 13th from Caſſel, and on the 15th ſet out for Paris by the Way of Strasbourg. A few Days ſince a Fire broke out in the Town of Ebingen, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that the Town-houſe, Poſt Office, and ſeveral other Houſes, were ſoon reduced to Aſhes.

Hamburgh, Sept. 19, N. S. The Duke of Hildburghauſen, accompanied by the young Prince his Brother, left Hamburgh the Day before Yeſterday, and proceeded on their Route to Denmark.

Hague, Sept. 23, N. S. The Prince of Orange returns hither on Thurſday next to aſſiſt at the Aſſembly of the States of Holland, where it is ſuppoſed the Plan for the Reduction of the Troops of this Republick will be taken into Conſideration. It is expected, that there will ſoon be held a Diet in Guelderland, at which the Deputies from that Province, as well as thoſe from Holland, Utrecht, and Overyſſel, will be preſent, in order to ſettle the Affair of the Bridge of Panbern, which at preſent obſtructs the free Courſe of the Water, and may thereby cauſe ſome violent Inundations. It is reported, that M. d'Ammon, Envoy from the King of Pruſſia to this Republick, is preparing to leave this Place, having received his Letters of Revocation.
